To Have and to Hold
“A Parasol Etui”

Jackie joins us in Plymouth, MA. She brings to us her “A parasol Etui” – This workshop presents a delightful elegant parasol shaped etui hinged canopy that lifts up to reveal a silk lined interior with areas to hold your treasured needle work tools. A tiny needle book, button pouch, scissor minder and dainty stitched pin cushion. All created from stitched panels and silk lining fabric.

Delicate stitched vines with soft warm coral blossoms that twist and turn.

This workshop is a work in hand finishing with some machine sewing, if able bring a sewing machine.

Pre-stitch kits will be mailed as soon as processed to give you plenty of time to finish the stitching.

Kit will include all supplies to complete this project, Scrim sold separately.

Presents

A SWEET LITTLE BUTTERCUP

Lauren brings to Plymouth this sweet little embroidered and beaded ‘Buttercup’ inspired by a poem from the pen of Lucy Maud Montgomery, the Canadian author of Anne of Green Gables. The five petaled ‘buttercup’ measures just 2” high and 3” in diameter when the drawstrings are drawn together and tied firmly. Your Buttercup will be stitched on 32Count Laurel linen. Felted wool “Pin Ball” tucked inside the opening becomes the flower’s center. Accents of beads and cotton print buttery yellow lining to finish off your Buttercup pouch.

Kit will include all materials to complete this project including all finishing supplies.
